Introduction

- It's true: salvation is deep and wide. It is _____. It comes from the very mind and heart of God. We can study its fullness and riches for a lifetime.
  - Yet, it is so _____, a child can have and exercise true, saving faith.
  - Every Christian has been called to bear _____—to open our mouths and speak the message of Christ. But it's not just any message we share. It's His message.
  - But Paul reminds us in 2 Corinthians 5 that we are not the _____ of the gospel—we are the ambassadors.

I. The Message We Must Communicate (vv. 17–19)

1. Salvation Is God's Work, Not Ours.

2 Corinthians 5:17

- When we share the gospel, we're not inviting people to try harder or be better. We're declaring that God can make them _____.
- This means our message should never sound like self-help. We don't tell people, "You just need to turn your life around." We tell them, "You must be _____."

2. Reconciliation comes only through Christ.

2 Corinthians 5:18

- We must make it clear that the problem between God and humanity is not a lack of information, or education, or religion—it's separation. _____ has driven a wedge between us and our Creator.
- The message is this: _____ with God is only found through Jesus Christ.

So what must we communicate?

- Christ died for sinners.
- He rose from the dead.
- He offers forgiveness and new life to all who believe.

What must we not communicate?

- That good people go to heaven.
- That sincerity saves.
- That all religions lead to God.

We are not free to change the terms of reconciliation. God has already declared that it is through Christ alone.

3. The Message Centers On The Person And Work Of Christ.

2 Corinthians 5:19

- When you share your faith, the goal is not to impress people with your knowledge of Scripture or theology; it's to _____ Jesus.

People need to hear who He is and what He has done:

- He is the Son of God.
- He lived a perfect, sinless life.
- He died as our substitute bearing our sin and its penalty.
- He rose again on the third day.

And now He calls us to turn from our sin and trust in Him alone.

II. The Message We Must Not Compromise (vv. 20–21)

1. Don't soften the reality of sin.

2 Corinthians 5:20

- Why must people be reconciled? Because they are separated. Because sin has _____ us from a holy God.

2. Don't remove the necessity of repentance and faith.

- Repentance is not a work we do to earn salvation—it's the response of _____ that turns away from sin and toward Christ.

3. Don't Obscure The _____ Of The Cross.

2 Corinthians 5:21

- Here's what happened at the cross: Jesus, who never sinned, took our sin upon Himself. He bore the _____ we deserved. He stood in our place, condemned, so that we could stand in His place, forgiven.

---

III. The Message We Must Live Out

- That's what evangelism is. When you share the gospel, you are _____ King Jesus to a world that doesn't know Him.
- We are not perfect, but we are witnesses—and our lives should _____ to the reality of what we proclaim.

---

Conclusion: The Gospel—Simple, Not Shallow

What we must communicate:

- God's holiness.
- Our sin.
- Christ's death and resurrection.
- The call to repent and believe.
- The promise of new life in Him.

What we must not communicate:

- That salvation can be earned.
- That we are good.
- That Jesus is one of many ways.
- That moral reform equals conversion.

Our message is simple, but it's not shallow. It's deep enough to save the worst sinner, and clear enough for a child to understand.
